Remote Learning Plan

The guidance from the DfE, published on 16 August 2021, states that self-isolation is no longer required for close contacts of a person with Covid-19, if that contact is under the age of 18. Therefore, it is not anticipated that there will be a return to whole school closures nationally and class closures will be a last resort (see DfE Contingency Framework).

However, it is likely that some children will have to miss school because they have asymptomatic Covid-19. It is also possible that, should there be a major Covid-19 outbreak within school, whole classes may have to move to home learning for 10 school days. If your child is ill with Covid-19, or any other illness, they won't be expected to complete any home learning.

	Type of Home Learning
	Individual Isolation	Class Isolation	Whole School Lockdown Closure
Who is this for?	This is for individual children who can't attend school because they have Covid-19 but don't have symptoms, so can continue to access learning at home during isolation.	This is for whole classes who have been moved to remote learning for 10 school days because there has been a significant outbreak which continues to spread.	It is not expected that there will be a need to close the whole school as a result of Covid-19. However, should this be necessary, this home learning will be provided.
How will the learning be structured?	The teacher will still be teaching the rest of the class in school. As we have ensured that all children have access to a Chrome Book should it be needed for live lessons, the teacher will provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access to live teaching via Teams so that the pupil can virtually join the classroom and participate in the teaching and learning at the same time as their peers in 	As the whole class will be working from home, the teacher will teach lessons as usual but via Teams, as in the previous lockdown period. All pupils who need one will be offered a Chrome Book to facilitate access to Teams for live learning. All worksheets and links will also be uploaded to the class's Teams page.	As the whole class will be working from home, the teacher will teach lessons as usual but via Teams, as in the previous lockdown period. What feedback/marking will be offered?	Learning should be sent to the teacher via email or Teams. It will then be marked and feedback sent back to the pupil either verbally or via Teams.	Learning should be sent to the teacher via Teams. How will my child's teacher keep in touch with him/her?	The pupil will join the register every morning and afternoon. If any additional help is required during learning time, the pupil can either ask questions when online with the class or can email the teacher directly.	All pupils will attend registration each morning and afternoon. There will also be daily contact via the online live teaching.	Aside from daily online contact via teaching, as in previous lockdowns, teachers will email weekly or make phone calls to check on the welfare of pupils.

In the event of a teacher being unwell, a different teacher will stand in or there may be joint online lessons with the parallel class.
